FOOD FOR THOUGHTS

"The man who came to the feast without a wedding garment represents the condition of many in our world today. They profess to be Christian, and lay claim to the blessing and privileges of the gospel, yet they feel no need of transformation of character. They have never felt true repentance for sin. They do not realize their need of Christ or exercise faith in Him. They have not overcome their hereditary or cultivated tendencies to wrongdoing. Yet they think that they are good enough in themselves, and they rest upon their own merits instead of trusting in Christ. Hearers of the word, they come to the banquet, but they have not put on the robe of Christ's righteousness."
(Christ's Object Lessons p. 314)
